Notification

S.O. — Whereas the Election Commission is satisfied, on information in its possession and after hearing the counsels and other representatives for both the groups on 23rd and 26th April, 1980, that there are two rival sections or groups of the Janata Party (Secular), a National Party, each of whom claims to be that party, one such section or group being led by Shri Raj Narain and the other being led by Ch. the Constitution read with rules 5 and 10 of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, paragraphs 3, 6, 7, 8 and 18 of the Election Symbols (Reservation and Allotment) Order, 1968 and all other powers enabling it in this behalf, pending final orders in the dispute between the two rival sections or groups of the said Janata Party (Secular) referred to in paragraph 1 above, the Election Commission hereby orders that:—
